The Challenge:

Client required Verve's LPO arm to research and accumulate cases related to the Top 100 companies registered in U.K., Government Authorities of England and Wales etc. and also to find details of lawyers mentioned in the cases and rate them on the basis of the cases they win or lose.

This company, with headquarters in the UK, wanted complete research on the cases pertaining to Companies and Government Agencies. The objective was to procure details of the most sort out lawyers in UK who handle all types of High Profile Cases.

The Solution:

Our chosen team of lawyers is well experienced and well versed in legal matters, and takes a holistic approach to cases, that is, we consider the case from a comprehensive perspective and from what will be best suitable for the client. All members chosen were lawyers who have had significant experience in the area of legal research. Once the team members were approved by Client, the team leader divided the whole task into three tiers: first searching the cases for against the Target list – [that consisted of the Companies names, provided by the client]; second, extracting the brief of the case; third, searching the details of the lawyers and rating them on the bases of the judgment [win or lose] of the case. This task was followed by uploading the searched details of case and lawyers on the website as per Client's instructions.

The first draft of the researched output was developed by the team and then sent to the Quality Analyst to perform an exhaustive QC before they were forwarded to the Client via the Project Manager.

The team that was assembled for the project specializes in UK laws. The project was therefore completed on schedule and has surpassed the client's expectations in terms of quality. Having completed the pilot project to the client's satisfaction, Client has since provided the team with an ongoing series of projects. This team, dedicated to Client, has since added new members to support our ongoing projects with Client.

Our Value Prop:

Our in-house team of legal experts has extensive experience in Legal Research and Analysis. Verve's effectiveness in adhering to Client's request to be accurate, thorough and effective in the research of laws, rules, etc. that helped us for better understanding, and standing up to the Client's expectation, delivering the promised research paper on time with 100% accuracy.
